Skilled Lenders Join Town & Country Bank

ST. GEORGE, UT—Town & Country Bank has announced the recent hiring of loan officers Doug Dennis and Jimmy Lindell.

VP Doug Dennis

VP Jimmy Lindell

Mr. Dennis joins the bank as a vice president in the bank's Sandy-based Northern Utah lending division. A banker since 1986, he has many longstanding customer relationships, and has consistently been a top loan originator at various financial institutions. Mr. Dennis is exceptionally proficient in underwriting Small Business Administration (SBA) loans, an activity that continues to be an important focus for Town & Country. Mr. Dennis is a graduate of the University of Utah and he holds a Master's degree in Public Administration. As part of his Master's thesis, he worked on a development project in Egypt for approximately eight months and in Manama, Bahrain for another eight months.

Mr. Lindell becomes a vice president in the bank's main office. He replaces veteran lender, Brian Taylor, who recently retired. Schooled at Dixie State University and UNLV, he began his banking career in Las Vegas as a branch manager for a large national bank. For the past seven years, Mr. Lindell has worked in St. George at another national banking firm—first as a branch manager and later as a commercial loan officer. As a lender, he led a multi-state region in loan production.

Town & Country Bank is Washington County's only locally headquartered financial institution. It was named as the 2016 Best of State winner in Banking, and Best of State Statue winner, topping the 37 other Business Services Best of State winners.
