Town & Country Bank Adds New Director

ST. GEORGE, UT—Town & Country Bank has added local attorney Kurt A. Johnson, 48, to its Board of Directors. He joins nine other current board members at the bank. Mr. Johnson operates his own law practice, which emphasizes estate planning, probate, asset protection and business and tax planning. Prior to joining Town & Country's Board, Mr. Johnson served on the bank's advisory board, a consultative group that assists management. He is also a Certified Public Accountant, and he has been active in numerous civic endeavors, including his service as trustee of The Foundation of Dixie Regional Medical Center over the last 12 years.

Kurt A. Johnson

Locally-owned Town & Country Bank has assets of $61.4 million and reports strong capital and liquidity. The bank has drawn attention for its popular, teller-less banking approach and its proprietary Town Card—an ATM/debit card offering time-of-purchase discounts at hundreds of local stores and restaurants.
