Town & Country Bank Promotes Taylor

ST. GEORGE, UT—Town & Country Bank recently named Brian Taylor as a Senior Vice President. Taylor joined the bank’s loan department in 2008 and has spent more than 31 years in the banking industry, including his years as a bank president with another community bank.

Brian Taylor

“Brian is a true and seasoned professional,” says P. West Martin, Executive Vice President & Chief Lending Officer. “He has worked hard to build a significant concentration of high quality loans in our portfolio.” Recently, Taylor has been invited to serve on the boards of Habitat for Humanity of Southern Utah, and the Association of PUDs and Condominiums.
