TOWN & COUNTRY BANK ELECTS NEW BOARD CHAIRMAN

St. George-based Town & Country Bank has elected Michael J. Kraupp as Chairman of its Board of Directors. Mr. Kraupp is Vice President Finance and Treasurer of SkyWest, Inc., where he has spent the last 18 years. He holds a CPA certification and is active in various civic and cultural affairs, and has previously served on the boards of the St. George Area Chamber of Commerce and the Erin Kimball Memorial Foundation. Mr. Kraupp had been serving as Town & Country's Vice Chairman since the bank opened in February 2008.

Regarding his election as Chairman, Kraupp says, "It has been gratifying to be part of the team that has launched an innovative and popularly received financial institution. We will continue to build a strong presence in the marketplace by offering distinctive customer service and products."

Town & Country Bank has approximately $48 million in assets and has introduced various original concepts such as its teller-less "concierge banking" approach, its free business courier and its "Town Card" – an ATM/debit card that offers discounts at nearly 240 local stores, restaurants and businesses.
